A LOGISTIC HUB LINKING THE WEALTHY SOUTH TO THE DEVELOPING NORTH OF BRAZIL

Dry Port - Uberaba has an intermodal terminal directly connected by road and rail to Brazilian seaports and operates as a center for the transshipment of sea cargo to its inland neighbors.

Uberaba's inner port also offers facilities for storage and consolidation of goods, maintenance for road or rail cargo carriers and customs clearance services.

EPZ - Economic Processing Zone offers suspension of federal taxes in a 2,7 millions square meters zone of free trade.

VLI - The targets rail logistics hub of the world.

VLI is structured in five large corridors (Center-North, Center-Southeast, Center-East, Minas-Rio and Minas-Bahia). Therefore, they ensure higher capillarity and internalization, reaching regions with high expansion potential in all the segments: agricultural and mineral commodities, industrialized and steel products. In Uberaba, VLI is beginning with a huge intermodal hub customizing logistic solutions to ensure maximum agility and efficiency to handle cargo types like grains and sugar.
